

Kristin Sharpe's Accolades

National Sales Director Kristin Sharpe is the daughter of Senior National Sales Director, Connie Kittson. Prior to Mary Kay, Kristin was a National Leadership Consultant for author and speaker, John C. Maxwell. She started her Mary Kay career in June of 2006. She became a Red Jacket two weeks later. Kristin's team production that first month was over $10,000 wholesale. ($20,000 retail)

Kristin earned the use of her first Mary Kay career car in just three months with the company and became an Independent Sales Director one month later. She earned three cars her first year in the business and is currently driving her ninth career car, the beautiful pink Cadillac Escalade. Kristin has been a Star Consultant every quarter since joining the company.

Kristin broke a company record by achieving Triple Star- Queen's Court of Sales, Queen's Court of Sharing, and Unit Club—in less than nine months with the company. She went on to achieve Triple Star seven consecutive years before becoming a National Sales Director.

Kristin has been in the Top 20 for the Court of Sharing 4 times. She was the Queen of Sharing for the entire Diamond Seminar in 2012.

Kristin's personal Sales Unit achieved a Unit Club every year since debuting. She was recognized as the #2 Director in North America in 2013 and the #1 Director worldwide in 2014, reaching over $1.25 Million in Unit Retail Sales. She was also the Queen of Unit Retail Sales twice, both times as a Million-Dollar Director.

Kristin has earned over 100 carats in diamonds as well as numerous luxury trips to places like Hawaii, Greece, Turkey, France, Monaco, China, London, Paris, and Argentina.

To date, her highest commission check in one month has been in excess of $35,000.

Kristin was honored to be selected as the September 2011 Miss Go-Give, the most coveted award in Mary Kay. Kristin and her mom, Senior National Sales Director Connie Kittson, are proud to be the 10th Mother Daughter NSD Team in the Company's 54-year history.

Kristin is the honored leader of the YES! Unit and proud National Sales Director of the three-time Gold Circle Sharpe National Area. She lives in Sugar Hill, Georgia with her husband, Dr. Courtney Sharpe, and their 2 year old son, Luke.

Please welcome
National Sales Director
Kristin Sharpe!